

STEEL NEWS · INVESTIGATIVE JOURNALIST

ANN VANDERSTEEL

Investigative Journalist | Constitutional Advocate
Co-Founder, American Made Foundation

Ann Vandersteel is a powerhouse in investigative journalism, constitutional advocacy, and boots-on-the-ground reporting — fearlessly tackling the most pressing issues threatening American sovereignty and freedom.

As the host of Steel News, she is more than a journalist — she is a war correspondent in the battle for truth, a dynamic public speaker, and a relentless documentarian exposing government overreach, corruption, and globalist agendas. From her coverage of J6 entrapment and the “fedsurrection” to her frontline reporting on the invasion at the U.S. southern border with Operation Burning Edge, Ann immerses herself in the heart of every story, delivering not just the facts but the path forward to restoring the republic.

As Chair and Co-Founder of the American Made Foundation, Ann is leading the charge for government accountability and constitutional restoration. Through American Made, she has played a pivotal role in supporting victims of Hurricane Helene, advocating for wrongfully incarcerated J6 defendants, and exposing unconstitutional government actions — with work centered on education, action, and defending the rights of the people.

Previously the host of SteelTruth, Ann built a reputation as a trailblazer in alternative media: an uncompromising investigative journalist who refuses to shy away from stories ignored or manipulated by the mainstream press. Her bold, segmented format covers everything from breaking news and financial warfare to health freedom and expert interviews.

Known for her integrity, fearlessness, and elite network of sources, Ann regularly features A-list guests and high-profile insiders — whistleblowers, intelligence officials, and political operatives committed to exposing corruption, including former NSA Technical Director Bill Binney, Trump advisors Peter Navarro and Steve Bannon, election-integrity expert Patrick Byrne, Fox News host Jeanine Pirro, Kari Lake, border czar Tom Homan, border-security expert Michael Yon, former DOJ attorney Sidney Powell, FBI Director Kash Patel, General Michael Flynn, and filmmaker Dinesh D’Souza.

With a relentless pursuit of truth and a strategic vision for restoring America’s constitutional foundation, Ann Vandersteel is not just reporting on history — she’s shaping it.
